

Timber Wolf Alliance
2012 Wolf Awareness Week Poster Contest
CALL FOR ENTRIES

Deadline: April 20, 2012

The TIMBER WOLF ALLIANCE Seeks Submissions for the Featured Art on the 2012 WOLF AWARENESS WEEK POSTER.

Artists working in a two dimensional medium are invited to enter this competition for the 2012 Wolf Awareness Week poster.

The North Lakeland Discovery Center, in collaboration with the Timber Wolf Alliance (TWA), will celebrate National Wolf Awareness Week October 14th -20th, 2012. Wolf Awareness Week (WAW) is a nationwide event and celebration. Organizations focus on the wolf and educate the public on this charismatic and often misunderstood species.

The TWA-sponsored poster, the most anticipated and widely distributed piece of WAW literature each year, reaches thousands of people throughout the United States and parts of Canada. It has historically become a collector's item following publication.

TWA is soliciting entries for the 2012 WAW poster. In return for the use of the winning artwork, the artist will receive prominent credit on the poster, 200 copies of the poster, and a $500 cash award. The rules and entry form are available at the TWA website: www.TimberWolfAlliance.org.
